

Department of Psychology - University of Bologna

PhD in Psychology, curriculum:

Joint International PhD Program in Cognitive Neuroscience

New call - Academic year 2017-2018

The JICN PhD program provides a new and innovative program in Cognitive Neuroscience that results in a Ph.D. title conferred jointly by the University of Bologna and one of two partner institutions.

Partner Institutions:

- University College of London, London, UK
- Bangor University, UK

JICN coordinator:

Elisabetta Làdavas

Structure of the JICN PhD Program:

- Ph.D. program length: 3 years, including 2 years at Univ. of Bologna + 1 year in one of the partner institutions
- Official Language: English
- Number of positions available: 2 full fellowships

Faculty members:

Alessio Avenanti

Elisa Ciaramelli

Giuseppe di Pellegrino

Paul Downing

Francesca Frassinetti

Patrick Haggard

Research areas:

- Social cognitive and affective neuroscience
- Interaction between emotion and cognition
- Attention, action and body representation
- Multisensory integration
- Learning and Memory
- Cognitive neuropsychology and rehabilitation

Contacts:

elisabetta.ladavas@unibo.it

alessio.avenanti@unibo.it

Time schedule and application:

- Application deadline: 1 p.m., May 29th, 2017
- Interview: July 18th, 2017
- Starting date: November 1st, 2017

More info on JICN:

<http://neuroscience.psice.unibo.it/>

Centro studi e ricerche in Neuroscienze Cognitive

Alma Mater Studiorum - Università di Bologna

